
The Pennefather Rowing Club
Caulfield Grammar School
www.pennefather.com.au

The Pennefather Club is named after Harold Pennefather who gave many years of service to rowing at Caulfield, being involved from the time of Caulfield's entry into the APS until his retirement in 1969. The club aims to support the rowing programme its coaches and our rowers. Last year funds raised from activities allowed us to purchase ergo rowing machines for our rowers' gym training sessions, new bikes and shirts for our coaches and audiovisual equipment. It would be great if you could help support the Caulfield Grammar School rowing programme by joining the Pennefather Rowing Club. To recognise financial members each membership will receive one PFRC cap and a PFRC car sticker. You will also receive regular emails regarding our events and activities.
